LAUGHS AT THE HOUSE

Dr. Russel Gives It the Merry Hoot.

THAT BRIBERY INVESTIGATION

Ridicules Pretence of the Home Rule Solons That They Could Arrest Him.

When Senator Russel was asked last night what he intended to do about the demands of the House Unrulers he replied "Nothing," meaning "nitsky." "If they make any charge they cannot make it stick," said he. "In the first place to make an official investigation they must have an official basis of complaint, and a newspaper interview does not furnish an official basis. Furthermore, what they are complaining of I don't know. I said no more than that there was money in Honolulu for the purpose of bribing legislators. If I had said that the legislators had been bribed, or would be bribed, on intended to be bribed, they might complain. Why, one might say that there was money in the hands of people who wanted to bribe an Apostle, but that would not be stating that he was corrupt. The whole affair is so ridiculous that I must laugh. It must be a joke. I cannot treat it seriously. They want to know why I will not expose the names of the bankers of the bribery funds. I will say that I am afraid to disclose this information to the House for fear of such a rush upon that bank that there will be no money left for the Senators."

Dr. Russel laughs heartily over the whole affair and treats it as a great joke. He says that he is perfectly secure from being nabbed by the House, by reason of the provisions of the law rendering legislators exempt from arrest except for breach of the peace felony and treason. He says also that he has not even received an invitation to explain himself to the offended solons. It is evident that he would rather enjoy the novel experience.

LOST HER PURSE AT SING LOY'S

A Salesman Arrested on Suspicion—Bicycle Thieves are Busy.

Yesterday morning Ah Kung, a salesman at Kong Sing Loy's store, was arrested on a charge of larceny in the second degree.

Mrs. Manase went into the store accompanied by her little grandson, for the purpose of making some purchases. While she was being waited on by Ah Kung the little boy wandered out of the building into the street.

His grandmother, fearing that he might be run over, hurried after him, leaving her purse containing $7 on the showcase.

When she returned to the store, a minute or so later, the money was not to be found. She asked the Chinaman if he had seen her property, which he denied and withdrew to the other end of the store.

Mrs. Manase informed the police of the loss she had sustained, and Ah Kung's arrest followed.

Other arrests of the day were: Kaehele, investigation; W. Keola, driving a horse and dray faster than a walk; Alberg Blon, vagrancy; F. E. Down, profanity.

The police have been instructed to keep a sharp lookout for a band of bicycle thieves who have been keeping owners of machines on tenterhooks during the past week. Numerous complaints have been made of loss of wheels, lamps and bells, and the soldiers on some of the recently arrived transports are suspected of purloining the missing bikes.

No less than seven wheels are being searched for by the police. Two were recovered yesterday by an officer, near the Pacific Mail wharf, and are at the police station awaiting claimants. The lamp-robbers are exceedingly bold in their operations, their favorite hunting ground being the hallways of large buildings.

The movements of the Lung Tu and See Yup tongs of highbinders are being carefully watched by the police. Everything appears to be quiet at present, but a rupture is expected at any time. Both the Lung Tus and the See Yups are gaining new members every day.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies, but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. George F. Parsons & Co., druggists, of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd.
